

NAWBO
BUFFALO NIAGARA
National Association of Women Business Owners

NAWBO forges connections; offering opportunities to network with dynamic women entrepreneurs. Benefit from member support, energy, and experience: women entrepreneurs who know what it takes day-to-day to grow a business. It's a smarter, faster, more networked way to build your business.

2009-2010 Dinner Meetings

Dinner meetings are held the second Wednesday of the month at Sean Patrick's Restaurant, 3480 Millersport Highway in Getzville • Networking: 5:30 p.m. • Dinner: 6:00 p.m. • Cost: $30/member and $35/guest

Register online: nawbowny.org

NOV 11 When Your Life is a Business, then Your Business Is Just Another Part of Your Life Amy Remmele, Peak of Success, discusses a process for managing life as a business; applying business principles to daily living.

DEC 9 What Are the Advantages of Women Business Enterprise Certification? Adrian Rodriguez, MBE/WBE Coordinator, Erie County Division Equal Employment Opportunity and Women Business Enterprise/Minority Business Enterprise certification with Erie County.

JAN 13 It's All About... Networking! Roundtables Our roundtables will feature – you and your business! Facilitators will keep conversation moving to spotlight all participants.

FEB 10 What Can NAWBO Do for You & Your Business? Discover how membership in NAWBO can give your business the competitive edge.

MAR 10 Product Pricing to improve Your Bottom Line Presented by Tom Ulbrich, Executive Director of the UB Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership.

APR 14 International Importing & Exporting Presented by Michelle Bonn, owner of Expedient Trade.

MAY 19 Auction Fundraiser Proceeds benefit chapter's leadership training for women entrepreneurs and women's scholarship fund.

JUN 9 Annual Meeting